WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

Fantasy.

The fall is come with the leaves.

Autumn with colds and known.

The world festively dressed with face clouds.

Initial Meeting.

The Redheads will hold their first annual meeting on the 1st of October in the home of Mrs. E. H. Turner.

There will be an election of officers.

Williams Brown Wedding.

On Monday evening Miss Georgia

Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.

Brown of Muskogee, was united in marriage to Mr. A. W.

Wilson of Tulsa, the capital being being held in the Hotel Baker

Stadium restaurant in the heart of the city.

The ceremony took place before a full house in the Meeting room of the Muskogee Apartment hotel.

Afterwards there was a party in the home of the bride.

The flowers were an armful of white bridal roses tied with white ribbon.

Miss McClelland was a young and geometric lace trimming and her hair was elegantly done.

The bride's mother, Mrs. George

Baker sang the wedding song and played the professional.

After the ceremony the bridal couple received those present being relatives and in-imate friends, and during this time an excuse to pink and green was availed.

The couple then adjourned to the bride's parents' home where they were a popular member of the set here, Mr. Williams sharing this popularity.

Circus Parties.

Quite an innovation after dull summer days will be several circus parties being formed for the afternoon and night performances of the circus.

Tulsa Town Club.

Mr. S. J. Reed was the main speaker at the weekly meeting and diner of the Tulsa Town Club on Monday evening. Mr. Reed is a member of several of the local civic clubs and gave an interesting talk on building and local associations.

Noticing a fact that in nearly all such organizations of which he was speaking, women were more numerous as members than men, Mrs.

Mrs. Ora Lightner Frost was welcomed home after a summer spent away.

Mrs. Frost was called on to tell of her experiences which she did in her usual pleasing style.

Mr. H. W. Mainwaring and wife arrived Monday from Colorado

Springs and are at home at 115 East

Tenth street. The wedding in Denver quite recently of Mr. Mainwaring and Miss Erisie Braun was of local interest.

Miss Marion McClintock leaves quite soon for Ogallala, Pa., where she will enter school. Miss McClintock will be accompanied to her destination by Mrs. R. O. McClintock who will visit in the east for several weeks.

Mrs. M. E. Stanley, Mrs. Letitia

Stanley, Mrs. Alice and little Miss

Phoebe Ann have returned from Colorado where they have been spending the summer. Mrs. Lawton spent the time in violin study under the direction of Mrs. F. L. Smith.

It is a wise precaution to take a Stuart's Digestive Talcum after eating to avoid gas, sour bloating, flatulence, and the like. Logy finds

it good.
